

AS SEEN IN NOVEMBER 15, 2007

WINE ENTHUSIAST[®]

M A G A Z I N E

BUYING GUIDE

BEST BUYS

90 Tangent 2006 Paragon Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc (Edna Valley); $13. What a nice wine. It's so dry, acidically crisp, and so balanced, it puts many more expensive California Sauvignon Blancs to shame. There's no oak in this screwtopped wine, nothing to muck up the pure, fresh citrus and fig flavors. The winemaker has allowed high natural acidity to remain, which makes everything ultraclean and savory.

For More Information Call: 805-597-8200